Strong Field Set for 2019 Charles Schwab Challenge

FORT WORTH, TX – May 17, 2019 – Defending champion Justin Rose, the #2 ranked golfer in the world, will defend his title at the Charles Schwab Challenge next week against a strong field that includes eight of the top 15 players in the world. The event is May 20-26 at historic Colonial Country Club, featuring a $7.3 million purse.

After Rose, the top-ranked players are Francesco Molinari (7), Bryson DeChambeau (8), Xander Schauffele (9), Rickie Fowler (10), Jon Rahm (11), Paul Casey (12) and Tony Finau (15). Molinari is the British Open champion and Ryder Cup star who will make his debut at Colonial Country Club.

WGC Match Player champion Kevin Kisner, the 2017 champion at Colonial, highlights the commitments as well. Local favorite and Colonial member Ryan Palmer, who just won the Zurich Classic with Rahm as his partner, will be on hand. Other players scheduled for the annually stellar field include 2016 champion Jordan Spieth, two-time Colonial winner Zach Johnson, and other TOUR favorites such as 2013 PGA Champion Jason Dufner, 20th ranked Patrick Reed, Ian Poulter, Jim Furyk, Brandt Snedeker, Cameron Champ, Billy Horschel, Louis Oosthuizen and Bill Haas. 122 total players are expected to play in the championship.

Public tickets are on sale now. For more information, visit www.CharlesSchwabChallenge.com or call the Colonial Ticket Office at 817.927.4281. One-day tickets for any day, Wednesday through Sunday, are $50 each. Grounds passes good for the entire week cost $125. A $15 one-day Youth Ticket for young teens will also be available. Children 12 and under are admitted free of charge.
